FALL JAZZ CONCERT and 16-Hour Concert for NOLA

with Friday night's guest artist
JEFF COFFIN, Saxophone

Marathon concert begins Friday (7:30 p.m.) November 30, and ends Saturday (11:30 a.m.) December 1, 2007
Gaffney Auditorium
Winnetka, Illinois

JEFF COFFIN - Two-time Grammy Award Winning Saxophonist & Composer Jeff Coffin, well-traveled saxophonist/composer, and two-time Grammy Award winning member of Bela Fleck & the Flecktones, rejects all labels and categories other than “music” and “musician.”

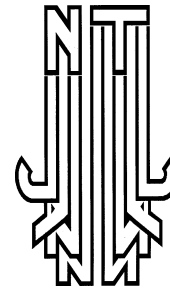

Since 1997, Coffin has traveled the world with the Flecktones, performing with musicians of all walks. Some of those he has shared the stage and the recording studio include such diverse artists as The Dave Matthews Band, Branford Marsalis, DJ Logic, New Orleans Social Club, McCoy Tyner, Baaba Maal, Mike Clark’s Prescription Trio, Chris Thile, Garth Brooks, Phish, Van Morrison, J.D. Souther, Vinnie Colaiuta, The Dixie Chicks, Bob Moses, Konger Ol Ondar, Stanton Moore, Brooks and Dunn, George Porter Jr., Umphrey’s McGee, Del McCoury, John Scofield, Yonder Mountain String Band, Marc Broussard, Lynyrd Skynyrd, the Wailers and many, many others. Along the way, Coffin has absorbed an astounding range of influences. “Whether it be New Orleans Second Line, African music, Indian Ragas, folk songs, Alan Lomax field recordings, jazz, or funk,” he says, “the spirit and breath of the music is what I take away from listening and playing. It’s what decides for me whether I like it or not.”

Known for sometimes playing alto and tenor sax simultaneously, with a nod to Rahsaan Roland Kirk, Coffin seeks out the extraordinary in his saxophone sound and in his technique of improvisation. Reaching for the unique is something Jeff makes an integral part of both his playing and teaching. In addition to the Flecktones, Jeff also leads his own group, The Mu’tet which takes its name for the word mutation, giving way to Jeff’s belief that music is constantly changing and mutating.

Jeff Coffin has played on hundreds of recordings, and has performed around the world including a 2007 performance at the esteemed Carnegie Hall. As a highly in demand clinician, Jeff has presented clinics from Farmington, Maine to Perth, Australia and is also an internationally acclaimed Yamaha and Vandoren Performing Artist since 2000. Jeff will join trumpeter Wayne Bergeron to perform with our Jazz Ensemble I and Jazz Guitar Ensemble at the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic on December 20.

Tonight we are excited to present a "16-Hour Jazz Concert for NOLA" to raise funds for our Jazz Ensemble I's trip to New Orleans over Spring Break to deliver musical instruments to the schools, help build a home in "Musicians' Village", and to generate funds towards our goal of donating $15,000 to NOLA Habitat for Humanity. 86 of our 110 jazz students are volunteering their time a talents to produce this unique marathon concert.

Also taking place tonight is a raffle called the... "THE COOL-STUFF-FROM-MAIL-ORDER-CATALOGS-THAT-YOU-ALWAYS-WANTED-TO-ORDER-BUT-NEVER-GOT-AROUND-TO-IT RAFFLE."

Funds from this raffle will be directed towards the cost of renting a truck (approximately $2,000) to transport the donated instruments to New Orleans. You need not be present to win. The procedure follows.

You can buy a raffle ticket in the lobby or near the stage for only $1. If your ticket is drawn during the marathon and you are present, you will be invited to come to the prize table and select the prize of your choice. If you are not present, then check the raffle webpage (NTJazz.com/marathon) during or after the marathon where we will post the names of the winners. If your name appears, call the marathon donation phone at 847-784-6701 or send an email to InstrumentsForNola@ntjazz.com to tell us what prize you want of the ones remaining.

All prizes must be picked-up by December 12. Any prizes not picked-up will be donated to Toys For Tots.
